Channel Islands Harbor Self-Guided Bike Tour: Explore the Harbor, Hollywood Beach, Silver Strand Beach & More!

A Points of Interest (see map)

- A. Hollywood Beach Nicknamed "Hollywood by the Sea" in the 1920's, the beach's sand dunes were transformed into desert backdrops in movies featuring Douglas Fairbanks and Rudolph Valentino.
- B. Channel View Park On the south flank of Channel Islands Harbor.
- C. Channel Island Yacht Club Founded in 1960, The Yacht Club has over 400 active members. Common club activities include sailboat racing, fishing expeditions, and log racing.
- D. Channel Islands Maritime Museum Complete with world class maritime art, ship models, and more, this museum has an ever-changing calendar of exhibitions complete with a perfect year-round ocean breeze.
- E. West Channel Park This small green belt overlooks the harbor. Relax on the picnic tables, or look for sea lions and pelicans commonly resting on the docks.
- F. Sunday Farmer's Market Meet some of Ventura County's finest farmers! The Market convenes every Sunday, 10am - 2pm, on the waterside at 3600 S. Harbor Blvd., adjacent to the Marine Emporium Landing.
- G. The Scarlett Belle Take in the gorgeous ocean sights with a paddlewheel riverboat. Offering charter cruises, the ship has two levels & an outside walk rounds on both decks.
- H. Anacapa Yacht Club The premier sailboat racing club in the Channel Islands Harbor.
- I. Pacific Corinthian Yacht Club Established in 1976, PCYC members own a fine full-service clubhouse and operates the marina. Offers activities for the whole family.
- J. Peninsula Park Features a picnic area, playground, recreation building, restrooms, showers, tennis courts, and nice harbor views.
- K. Fisherman's Wharf This landlocked lighthouse marks the center of shops and restaurants on the Channel Island Harbor.
- L. Kiddie Beach Park A small beach and roped off area make this beach a popular spot for young swimmers.
- M. Silver Strand Beach - Referred to as "The Strand," this beach offers a unique collection of both humble post-war homes & multimillion dollar waterfront mansions. Named after the "silver screen," this is where the stars of the Golden Age of Hollywood vacationed, and Clark Gable and Greta Garbo owned houses here.
- N. La Jenelle Park - 35 foot swells proved too much for the ship La Jenelle on April 13th, 1970. Eventually the wreck was transformed into a new arm for the Port Hueneme breakwater.
- O. United States Coast Guard Auxiliary Station The Coast Guard Auxiliary Station is known for boating safety classes and vessel safety checks.
- P. Channel Islands Harbor's North Bay A community of boat dock homes. Multiple channels and inlets offer many choices of waterfront living.
- Q. Oxnard Beach Park The rolling lawns make it a perfect spot for kite flying and picnicking.
